Introduction

This update provides 2 clinical reminders – one for each of the 2 meningococcal vaccine types.

Meningococcal conjugate vaccine (MenACWY) for serogroups A, C, W, Y is indicated for all previously unvaccinated adults at increased risk of serogroup A, C, W, Y meningococcal disease unless contraindicated. This includes patients with anatomic or functional asplenia, those with terminal complement deficiencies and those with HIV. MenACWY vaccination is also indicated for travelers to certain areas, those with occupational exposure, certain college students and military recruits.

Meningococcal serogroup B vaccine (MenB) series is indicated for persons at increased risk for of serogroup B meningococcal B disease unless contraindicated. Conditions that increase risk of serogroup B meningococcal disease include anatomic or functional asplenia, terminal complement deficiencies, and occupational exposure.

MenACWY:
A two-dose primary series with MenACWY is recommended for all adults who are at increased risk due to immune compromise. A single dose is adequate for those without HIV, asplenia or complement deficiency. Revaccination with MenACWY every 5 years for those who remain at increased risk of serogroup A, C, W, Y meningococcal disease is recommended

MenB:
Primary MenB immunization series is 2 or 3 shots depending on product and indication. Men B does not require revaccination after primary series. Men B may be given at the same time as Men ACWY but in a different anatomic location.

Complete information on the VHA recommendations for use of these 2 vaccines can be found in the VA Preventive Services Guidance Statement on meningococcal vaccination.

Additional information is also included in the descriptions of the reminders in the reminder definitions.

Pre-install

1. If you have been using local or VISN reminders for meningococcal vaccination, you may want to consider renaming your health factors to match the national reminders in order to prevent the installation of duplicates. Alternatively, you can map your local health factors to the appropriate terms after the installation.

   The health factors that will be installed with this update that are new are:

   REFUSED MENINGOCOCCAL ACWY VACCINE
   MENINGOCOCCAL ACWY DEFERRAL TEMPORARY
   MENINGOCOCCAL ACWY DEFERRAL PERMANENT
   MENINGOCOCCAL ACWY DISEASE RISK
   MENINGOCOCCAL ACWY DISEASE - NOT AT RISK

   REFUSED MENINGOCOCCAL B VACCINE
   MENINGOCOCCAL B DEFERRAL TEMPORARY
   MENINGOCOCCAL B DEFERRAL PERMANENT
   MENINGOCOCCAL B DISEASE RISK
   MENINGOCOCCAL B DISEASE - NOT AT RISK

   For items 2-5 below, these will not be needed if you follow the instructions carefully – no changes will be made to the pneumococcal reminders but since the reminder for PCV13 is used by the new reminder for meningococcal ACWY immunization, that reminder gets rolled up into this exchange file entry – the PCV13 reminder is not to be updated or overwritten during this update.

2. Print and save the reminder definition VA-PNEUMOCOCCAL IMMUNIZATION PCV13 for comparison post installation.
3. Check the dialog group for quick orders for the PCV13 immunization and record those entries so they can be re-entered after installation if needed: OI PNEUMOC PCV13 OUTPT SHORT
4. There is a template fields used for Lot #s and expiration dates. Screen cap how you have this field set up for reference post install. IM PCV13 LOT# EXP DATE
5. Print and save the reminder term VA-PNEUMOC PCV13 ORDER SUPPRESSION for reference post install.
